

Bangladesh International Tutorial Limited (BITL) selected 10 senior students to participate in the Mission Discovery - 2019 in Singapore. -AA

BITL joins Mission Discovery Singapore

► AA Correspondent

Bangladesh International Tutorial Limited (BITL) has been invited by Stamford American International School (SAIS) 1-Woodleigh Ln, Singapore to participate the "Mission Discovery - 2019" Singapore. The program Mission Discovery Asia presented by International Space School Educational Trust (ISSET). BITL selected ten senior students accompanied by Nirupoma Iqbal and Abu Remad.

Mission Discovery - 2019 program will be held from 21st until 25th October. More than 300 students from all over the world likely to participate the five days mentoring program at SAIS campus to get experience about launch into space, learn about space and stem, design and experiment. The students will be mentored by the Mission Discovery team, which consist of National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA)'s Astronauts, Scientists and carefully selected mentors, with the aim to design a scientific experiment to be launched into space and performed abroad the International Space Station (ISS). Winning team experiments will be built in Houston and Carried out abroad the ISS by NASA astronauts. ISSET also welcomed the University of the West of Scotland (UWS) and overseas students for preparation of launch their imagination of the "Mission Discovery - 2019".