

Law task for class 11 and 12

1. State the main features of judicial precedent. (10)
2. Explain how judges can avoid following a binding precedent. (10)
3. Assess the advantages and disadvantages of judicial precedent. (10)
4. Explain the relationship between law and morality. (10)
5. 'The concept of equity and the idea of flexibility are inseparable.' How far is this statement historically correct? (10)
6. Identify any two justifications for punishment, and explain how far they are reflected in sentencing practice. (10)
7. Discuss the role of lay magistrate in the administration of justice. (10)
8. What are the primary and secondary sources of European Union Law? (10)
9. Evaluate claim that Dicey's account of the rule of law is too narrow to be useful in modern society. (10)
10. Robbie a famous DJ, had agreed with Joanna that he would perform at her night club for $10 000, $4 000 was to be paid in advance and the remainder after the performance. Joanna also agreed with Robbie to spend $1 000 on equipment for the performance. She also hired extra staff for a further $900. Joanna had sold advance tickets for Robbie's performance amounting to $20 000.
Joanna had contracted the services of Martin to act as a security guard before and during the performance; this included making sure that the building was secure. The night before the performance was due to take place, Martin mistakenly left a window in the building unlocked, allowing someone to get in and start a fire. This caused extensive damaged to the building, resulting in the nightclub being unsafe for the performance.
 - a) Identify the consideration that exists in the contract between Robbie and Joanna. (4)
 - b) Analyse whether Joanna is able to terminate her contract with Robbie following the damage to the building. (6)